

This privacy policy explains how Flourishing Child Enterprise Ltd., the owner and administrator of this website, may make use of any personal information we collect about you when you use this Web site.

What information do we collect about you?

We collect information about you when you voluntarily complete any surveys we distribute and register. We also collect information when you register for any of our events, including Webinars, virtual conferences, and place-based conferences and workshops. Web site usage information is collected using cookies.

How might we use the information about you?

We collect information about you to customize our communications to you, including e-mailing you about products and services we think may be of interest to you. We use your information collected from the Web site to personalize your repeat visits to our Web site. We do not share your information for marketing purposes with companies outside of Flourishing Child Enterprise Ltd.

Use of information for marketing

We may sometimes send you information about our products and services which may be of interest to you. You have a right at any time to stop us from contacting you for marketing purposes. Please click here if you no longer wish to be contacted for marketing purposes.

This site also uses 3rd party vendor re-marketing tracking cookies, including, but not limited to, the Google Adwords and Facebook tracking cookies. This means we will continue to show ads to you across the internet, specifically on the Google Content Network (GCN). As always we respect your privacy and are not collecting any identifiable information through the use of Google's, Facebook's, or any other 3rd party remarketing system.

Access to your information and correction

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your personal information, please email us.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

More about cookies

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behavior information. This information is used to track visitor use of the website and to compile statistical reports on Web site activity. For further information visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org. You can set your browser not to accept cookies and the above websites tell you how to remove cookies from your browser. However, in a few cases, some of our website features may not function as a result.

Changes to our privacy policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we will place any updates on this Web page. This privacy policy was last updated on September 10, 2020.
